

PD SELF 2017-2018
Parkinson's Disease Self-Efficacy Learning Forum (PD SELF)
Richmond, Virginia
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

WHAT IS PD SELF?

PD SELF stands for Parkinson's Disease Self Efficacy Learning Forum. PD SELF is a national pilot program of the Parkinson's Foundation (PF) designed to provide people with Parkinson's disease (PD) an in-depth understanding of the disease and self-efficacy tools to manage PD with confidence.

PD SELF was developed in 2013 by Diane Cook as part of a clinical trial sponsored by the Colorado Neurological Institute in Denver, CO. Multiple teams around the country including Richmond, VA were trained in 2016 to teach PD SELF. The 2017-2018 session will be the second time PD SELF will be offered in the Richmond area.

WHAT IS SELF-EFFICACY?

Self-efficacy is a scientifically-based approach that is effective in helping people with Parkinson's to develop the motivation and skills to manage PD. Self-efficacy can be defined as the ability to have influence over the conditions that affect our lives.

WHAT ARE THE OBJECTIVES?

There are two main objectives:

- To provide the newly diagnosed person with a PD-specific approach to self-efficacy that, together with the requisite understanding of PD, and how their disease progresses, will give them the best chance of using self-efficacy.
- To improve the quality of life over time for people with Parkinson's and possibly even change the trajectory of their disease.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

People with Parkinson's disease:

- Newly diagnosed - within 3 years of diagnosis
- Who can commit to attending a 9 session course over 8 months

Spouses or care partners are encouraged to attend as well.

Potential candidates for PD SELF should meet these criteria:

- Recent diagnosis of Parkinson's disease – diagnosed in 2014 or later
- Enjoys learning, interested in improving the quality of their life
- Ability to actively engage in group activities and discussions
- Can commit to attending at least 80% of the 9 sessions
- Have an email and the ability to conduct email correspondence
- Live in Richmond/Central Virginia area - course location is near Short Pump
- No limiting co-morbidities (additional illnesses or conditions that might prevent full participation in the program)

HOW OFTEN AND WHEN DOES IT MEET?

The program has 9 sessions spread over 8 months. The group meets face to face for 2 ½ hours each session from 10am – 12:30pm. After the first session on Sept 20, PD SELF will meet on the 1st Wednesday of month. April will have a second session.

WHO DELIVERS THE PROGRAM?

A health care professional and a person with Parkinson's both trained in the application of self-efficacy for Parkinson's. In Richmond, VA, the course will be co-led by:

- Fred P. Woodlief III, DDS. Following a career in family & cosmetic dentistry and as a clinical professor at Medical College of Virginia (MCV)/Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU), Fred now volunteers his time in the community and as a PD advocate. Fred was diagnosed with PD in 2006 at age 56. He is a member of the Richmond Movers and Shakers, a local group of PD patients who have raised over $5 million towards bringing a movement disorder program to VCU. Dr. Woodlief has served in the past as the co-chair of the PDF People with Parkinson's Advisory Council (PPAC) and he is a trained advocate for PDF Parkinson's Advocates in Research (PAIR).
- Lynn Klanchar, RN, MS. Lynn is a nurse with over 10 years of experience as an educator at the Parkinson's Disease Research, Education and Clinical Center (PADRECC) at the McGuire Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Richmond, VA. She facilitates the monthly PADRECC support group meetings. She works with colleagues at VCU, University of Virginia, and the Richmond Metro Chapter and Hampton Roads Chapter of the American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA) to organize community education events.
